

Friends Club

Terms & Conditions

The Friends club benefits general:

Friends club benefits are meant as a promotional enticement and as a 'thank you' for support; they are not in anyway intended to be contractual on either side and as such may be withdrawn by management without notice at any time. However if management intend to withdraw the overall programme 30 days notice would be given to all members.

The card and holder must be present in order to obtain any discounts. The discounts are not transferable to another table.

Free Lunch

The free lunch promotion applies every Monday to Saturday lunchtimes, but not on a Sunday. The offer is not applicable on bank holiday Mondays or Christmas Day. The offer requires that for every free lunchtime main course another must be purchased on the same table bill and its always the lower priced of the two which are free. In the event an odd number are purchased it is the lower priced of all main courses which are free.

The offer is not intended to be used with any other promotion and in particular not with periodic Friends Offers as detailed below.

Promotional Offers for Friends

These offers are sent out via email to Friends with details given at the time, and they are not intended to be used in conjunction with another offer, accept the Free Birthday wine.

Free Bottle of Wine

In this instance a free bottle of wine is intended to be a bottle of our house or lowest priced red or white wine. No other purchase is necessary at the but the wine must be consumed on the premises.

Enjoy!

March 3rd 2010